

Court declares harm: Plaintiffs are being deprived of life, liberty, and property without due process rights guaranteed under 5th Amendment.

Court declares rights: Recognizes a new constitutional right to a healthy atmosphere and stable climate system as part of the Due Process Clause of the 5th Amendment.

Court orders government: To create and put into effect a science-based climate recovery plan to protect the new constitutional right to a healthy atmosphere and stable climate system.

Court orders government: To stop new fossil fuel activities and new infrastructure until the court-approved climate recovery plan is in effect.

Court declares harm: To equal protection rights of youth guaranteed under 5th Amendment.

Court orders government: To create and put into effect a science-based climate recovery plan to protect the constitutional right of equal protection for youth.

Court declares rights: Recognizes a healthy atmosphere and stable climate system as critical resources under the Public Trust Doctrine.

Court declares harm: To a healthy atmosphere and stable climate system as critical resources under the Public Trust Doctrine.

Court orders government: To create a climate recovery plan to restore and protect a healthy atmosphere and stable climate system as critical public trust resource.

Court declares harm: To beneficiaries' right to survival and benefit from a healthy atmosphere and stable climate system.

Court declares duties: Of government to protect a healthy atmosphere and stable climate system as critical resources under the Public Trust Doctrine.

Court orders government: To stop new fossil fuel activities and new infrastructure until the court-approved climate recovery plan is in effect.

Court orders government: To stop new fossil fuel activities and new infrastructure until the court-approved climate recovery plan is in effect.